WHEN Bryan pleads for help for Bill Stone he pleads for one of the worst trust lobbyists in the state.

THE conversion of the school fund was unwarranted by the constitution and a wrongful act for which there was no excuse.

JUDGE TUNNELL is gaining favor every day for representative. The Judge is popular with all classes and in all parts of the county.

CHARLEY SPURGEON is splendidly equipped to discharge the duties of county clerk. Mr. Spurgeon is one of the best known and most popular men in the county and he is making a canvass that is bringing him new supporters every day.

THE state government prudently and economically administered; bome rule for the cities; restoration of the school and seminary funds; an honest appealing strongly for support from all men, irrespective of party.

It was at Raichur that I first heard of the predicted earthquake for the night of the 30th or 31st of this month. Undesirable Records.

The democratic congressmen of Missouri are now engaged in the deplorable farce of explaining their votes on the Philippine army bill. 3 Each of them, DeArmond, Clark, Lloyd, Doutherty, Cooney, Shacklefird, Vandiver, Cochran, Robb, Benton, Rucker, Cowherd, decreed in his vote that he would provide no shelter or comforts for our boys in the Philippine army. Among the soldier boys in that far away eastern country are many Missourians. Young men who left anxious mothers and admiring fathers to fight for their country's flag. Nearly all of the counties of this great state have brave young representatives fighting for the flag which Dewey hoisted at Manila in so gallant and brillant a manner.

In solid phalanx the members the democratic delegation in congres from Missouri lined up and persist ently urged McKinley to declare was against Spain. From that time on all of them have repeatedly sought to hamper the government by refusal to aid in suppressing a rebellion that came up as a result of the American occupation. In the house of representatives it was Champ Clark, as the defender of the Missouri delegation who was so roundly roasted by Representative Landis of Indiana. He said: "They wanted war and they would be satisfied with nothing else than war, and war came. Many of you will recall how the distinguished gentleman from Missouri charged up and down the aisle and, with a voice that penetrated almost to the caverns We guarantee positions, so of the Ozark mountains, declared that the democrats had taken the republicans by the scruff of the neck and dragged them into the war."

Mr. Clark said, "And that is precisely what we did."

Mr. Landis, "Yes." Mr. Clark, "We dragged you into that war." Mr. Landis, "And after you had dragged us in and these problems and these questions and these responsibilities came up, you turned your backs and ran away from every one of
